OF CHANGE STATEMENTS

prevention.

The Africa We Want: African Union Agenda 2063 Inclusive growth; sustainable development; integration; political unity. Pan-Africanism, good governance; democracy; human rights; justice; rule of law; peaceful; cultural identity; common heritage; shared values; ethics; people-driven development; reliance on human potential (women, youth, children); strong, united; influential global partners VISION 2050 The Rwanda We Want: Prosperity and High Quality of Life for All Rwandans 2030 AGENDA FOR SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT GOALS (SDGS) NST2 PILLAS ECONOMIC TRANSFORMATION TRANSFORMATIONAL GOVERNANCE SOCIAL TRANSFORMATION 1. Climate-resilient, productive, and modernized 1. Enhanced quality and market relevance 1. Enhanced Rule of Law of education. 2. Enhanced service delivery, governance, agri-food systems. 2. Industrial development and export promotion. 2. Enhanced quality of health, strengthened health inclusive citizen participation and implementation. 3. High-end, eco-friendly, and diversified tourism. systems and reduced stunting. 3. Enhanced PFM transparency and accountability 4. Renewable and clean energy transition 3. Increased access to Sanitation and Hygiene 4. Strengthened National unity, resilience, and universal access to electricity. services for improved wellbeing. culture and values 5. Increased access to Water for socioeconomic 4. Enhanced graduation from poverty and increased 5. Sustained peace and security development. resilience IMPACT 6. Enhanced transport connectivity for economic (NST 2 growth and trade. 2024 - 2029 7. Enhanced urbanization and settlements for PRIORITIES) agglomeration benefits. 8. Digital transformation. 9. Resilient and broadened financial sector for private sector growth. 10. Building resilience to climate change and sustainable management of the environment and natural resources. 11. Creation of productive and decent jobs. Outcome 1: By 2030, people in Rwanda, especially Outcome 2: By 2030 people in Rwanda, especially Outcome 3: By 2030, people in Rwanda benefit from transparent and accountable governance that fosters the most vulnerable groups have improved livelihoods the most vulnerable, are empowered as productive UNSDCF OUTCOMES and benefit from competitive, diversified, and resilient human capital, accessing and utilising inclusive, inclusive, equitable socio-economic transformation, inclusive economic growth that promotes gender resilient, gender-transformative and quality social human rights, gender equality, unity, peace and equality, sustainable production and consumption services. ecurity. IF data generation and analysis are harnessed to IF public and private institutions leverage IF national and sub-national entities enhance their development financing through innovative financing capacities and systems to leverage innovation and strengthen evidence-based, responsive and inclusive mechanisms, PPPs and access to climate financing public policy and project design, planning and technology to boost efficiency and quality of public implementation for effective and efficient social to accelerate inclusive economic growth. service delivery. service delivery. IF public and private institutions invest in sustainable IF the GoR effectively implements, monitors and management, utilisation and protection of natural IF cross-sectoral coordination is enhanced between reports on it global and regional commitments to resources and enhancing resilience of economic state and non-state actors for effective, coherent and promote peace and implement equitable, right-based OUTCOME THEORY growth by strengthening disaster risk response and integrated policy and strategy development and approaches.

services.

implementation, while adapting innovative approaches to increase access, affordability and quality of social

OUTCOME THEORY OF CHANGE STATEMENTS

IF public and private increase innovation and investments in productive and commercial agriculture and value chains become more productive, competitive and inclusive.

IF People, especially women's and youths' skills are enhanced, and they have access to finance and non-financial services and utilize innovative practices and technologies to leverage natural and productive resources for resilient employment and diversified livelihoods.

IF universal access to social services is scaled-up to resilient quality social services by all, especially most

IF communities effectively participate in the planning.

ensure the services effectively respond to their needs implementation and monitoring of social services to ensure equitable and gender-responsive usage of disadvantaged.

IF the GoR enhances implementation of initiatives that accelerate national and regional cooperation, integration, unity, sustainable peace and security.

IF inclusive governance is fostered through transparency and accountability mechanisms that strengthen citizen participation in local and national decision-making processes.

Then inclusive and climate resilient economic growth will contribute to creation of decent jobs and ensure all people in Rwanda have high quality and diversified livelihoods.

Then, Rwanda will improve its people's living standards and enhance its human capital to contribute to resilient social and economic development.

Then People in Rwanda will benefit from sustained development grounded in democratic values and accountable systems.

ASSUMPTIONS

- ➤ Rwanda's economy remains stable, allowing for sustained economic growth and investment.
- Continued commitment from the GoR to implement policies that support inclusive economic growth and gender equality.
- Vulnerable people access resources such as capital, training & markets.
- Effective collaboration and partnership between public and private sectors established to align interests and share resources.
- ➤ An appropriate regulatory framework in place to support and incentivize businesses to provide decent jobs and adopt sustainable practices.
- A growing market demand for green jobs and services that promote sustainability, driving the development of new industries.
- ➤ Continued investment in green technologies and sustainable practices by both public institutions and private enterprises promote job creation.
- Communities actively participate in exploiting opportunities, ensuring programs are relevant and effective. Financial institutions provide inclusive financing options, including microloans and grants, that cater to the needs of the vulnerable

- GoR maintain strong political will and commitment to improving the quality and inclusiveness of social services.
- Sufficient funding and resources allocated to strengthen social service delivery, particularly for vulnerable populations.
- Effective policies in place that promote gender equality and inclusiveness in access to social services, particularly for vulnerable and marginalized groups.
- Effective collaboration and coordination among various sectors (health, education, social protection) established to ensure holistic service provision.
- Sufficient financial, human, and material resources allocated to build and maintain quality social service systems
- Social services designed and delivered based on needs and preferences of communities they serve, ensuring services are relevant and accessible.
- Multiple stakeholders, including government agencies, NGOs, and community organizations, collaborate effectively to enhance service provision.
- Sufficient financial resources and technical assistance allocated to support the effective functioning of social services.
- Adequate infrastructure in place to facilitate access to services, including transportation, healthcare facilities, and educational institutions. Communities aware of available social services and their benefits, leading to increased demand and utilization, particularly among vulnerable populations.

- accountable systems.
- Sustained political stability supports governance reforms, enabling transparent and accountable institutions to function effectively.
- MDAs and local government entities remain committed to enhancing their capacities in support of inclusive governance strengthening, protection of human rights, accountability and transparency.
- Partners in development prioritise governance programming.
- GoR prioritize peacebuilding initiatives and fostering social cohesion to create a united and secure environment for all citizens.
- Robust legal frameworks and policies in place promote equality, human rights, and the protection of vulnerable groups

OUTPUTS

Output 1.1: Strengthened public and private systems that foster creation of decent jobs that are inclusive and productive within a resilient, green and diversified economy.

Output 1.2: People in Rwanda, especially the most vulnerable groups, are equipped with employable skills and have access to and utilise sustainable productive resources, innovation, volunteer opportunities and financing to improve their livelihoods and build resilience. Output 2.1: Strengthened systems that provide inclusive, resilient, and gender-transformative quality social services.

Output 2.2: Increased access to and utilisation of inclusive, gender-responsive, quality social services improve livelihoods and wellbeing of all people in Rwanda including the most vulnerable.

Output 3.1:

Strengthened capacities of national and sub-national institutions and systems to deliver inclusive, rights-based, gender-transformative, resilient quality services for all people while promoting unity, peace and security.

Output 3.2: By 2030, people in Rwanda, especially the most vulnerable, live in a united, peaceful, secure and inclusive environment with equitable access to gender-responsive and resilient quality services.